Recreation Changes Sought at Meeting

Communities surrounding Drayton Valley in looking for an answer toward the county's "discrimination" against the west end regarding recreation monies, are now faced with three alternatives as outlined by M.L.A. Rusty Zander and Department of Youth, Culture, and Recreation Consultants Mrs. McFarlane and Al McRoberts.

At a special meeting called by Mr. Zander March 3rd, it was moved by the some 100 representatives of the communities to have the Department of Youth, Culture and Recreation look into the alternatives -- Since Drayton Valley is a large town in the west end with excellent facilities and good recreation staff, perhaps it could be persuaded to join into the Regional Recreation agreement; The communities could petition the county to set up a separate recreation area, where they would be taxed as they wished; and the communities could ask for a separate county.

The meeting, with representatives of the local recreation office, recreation board, the County Council, and the surrounding communities, brought forth views from both sides.

Mr. Zander expressed the idea that there is "discrimination against the west end" concerning recreational monies.

Representatives from such areas as Moon Lake, Ramona, Whitby, Tomahawk, and Rocky Rapids felt that too much of their one mill recreational taxes were going toward administration, and

Father Athol Murray Heads Sportsmen's Dinner Speakers

The Drayton Valley Athletic Association has plans well underway for the first sportsmen's dinner to be held in Drayton Valley for several years.

Members of the association are logging a lot of phone time and leg-work as they prepare for the event to be staged in the new Frank Maddock High School Auditorium on Friday, March 17th.

A great deal of work has gone into arranging a headtable of sports personalities, headlined by Father Athol Murray, Founder and Rector of Notre Dame College in Wilcox, Saskatchewan.

Father Murray, at 81, is in great demand on the banquet circuit. His knowledge of sports and acquaintance with top athletes provide the material for invariably entertaining talks by the outspoken priest.

He has been associated with youth in education and athletics for over 50 years and many of his graduates went on to make names for themselves in professional sports -- particularly hockey and football.

Father Murray has been called a legend in his own time.

Other featured speakers will include John Atamian, an offensive guard with the Calgary Stampeders; Ron Hayter, Edmonton alderman and Past President of the Alberta Amateur Baseball Association; Jim Young, running back with the B. C. Lions and former member of the Minnesota Vikings; and Mike Law, defensive halfback with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Among head table guests lined up for the event are well-known representatives of many sports. Among them are Johann

Annual Meetings Scheduled Here

Annual meeting of County of Parkland ratepayers will be held on Saturday, April 5th at 10:00 a.m. in the Frank Maddock High School Auditorium.

The western site is in keeping with the policy of scheduling the meeting between east and west on alternate years. Last year's meeting was held in the Serplex at Spruce Grove.

Town of Drayton Valley electors will meet to hear about town affairs at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, March 20th in the Council Chambers of the Administration Building.

Tomahawk Girl Wins Ottawa Trip

Linda Piskunowicz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Piskunowicz of Tomahawk, was selected Wednesday as the representative of the Drayton Valley Rotary Club for this year's "Adventure in Citizenship" trip to Ottawa.

Miss Piskunowicz was named winner of a speaking contest involving four girls from Frank Maddock High School at the Rotary Ladies' Night in the Cadium Room.

As a result of winning the competition she will spend four days in Ottawa later this spring as a guest of the Rotary Club of Ottawa, which sponsors the trip annually in co-operation with other clubs across the country. Young people from across Canada will gather in Ottawa for the occasion.

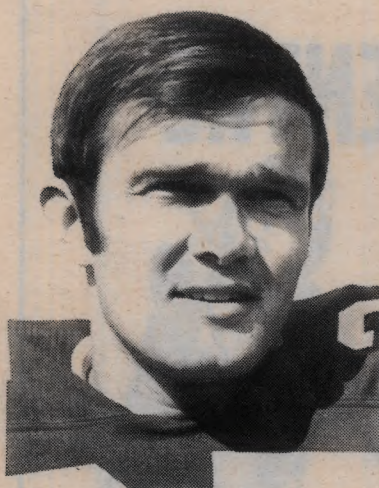

Linda chose as her topic "Should Persons in Essential Services be Allowed to Strike; Heather Ramshaw chose the same topic; Cheryl Daviduk selected the topic "Should RCMP Initials be Removed"; and Brenda Streit spoke on "Should Executives of Companies be Held Responsible for Pollution". All the girls handled these topics very competently.

The "Adventure in Citizenship" program started in 1951 and is now an annual event. During their stay in Ottawa the young people will visit many places of interest, including the Parliament Buildings, the Supreme Court, the National Art Gallery and Museum and the R.C.M.P. Training Centre.

The delegates have the opportunity of meeting members of Parliament as well as attending several social functions. While in Ottawa they are billeted in the homes of Rotary Club members.

The program is designed to foster pride in the Canadian way of life as well as promoting unity and pride in citizenship.

Unique P.C. Nomination Convention Ends at Drayton

In 1967, the federal constituency of Rocky Mountain was created through redistribution. It covers a vast area of western Alberta, approximately 385 miles from north to south and 175 miles in width at its widest point. It runs from the U.S. border in the south to north of Swan Hills in the north, from the B.C. border in the west to within approximately 60 miles of Edmonton and the city limits of Calgary in the east. The three National Parks, Waterton, Banff and Jasper and many widely separated towns and villages are included within its boundaries. The first and only Progressive Conservative Nomination Convention to date for the federal constituency of Rocky Mountain was held in a centrally located place, Red Deer, in 1968. This necessitated those residents wishing to take part to travel considerable distances, in many instances.

In view of this, the Federal Progressive Conservative Association of Rocky Mountain decided this time to elect their candidate through a series of nomination meetings, to be held in major centres throughout the constituency. These meetings begin in Blairmore on Monday, March 6, then will be held on consecutive nights in Turner Valley, Banff, Jasper, and Hinton. Starting again on March 14, meetings will be held consecutively in Grande Cache, Swan Hills, Whitecourt, Edson and Drayton Valley.

This should reduce the travelling time for members wishing to attend a meeting to no more than one hour in most instances.

With the close of nominations on February 23, 1972, there are three contenders for the nomination: Mr. Doug Caston, Edson; Mr. Joe Clark, Edson; and Mr. Hugh Gourlay, Banff.

In preparation for this travelling nomination convention, extensive plans had to be made. Many people were recruited in these various centres to assist with local arrangements.

Instead of renting one hall, ten are now required. Likewise, the candidates will now be meeting and speaking to ten groups of constituents over a period of 13 days rather than one group on one night.

Seeks P.C. Nomination

Richard Secord, 38, of Winterburn will contest the Progressive Conservative nomination in the Federal Riding of Wetaskiwin.

Mr. Secord is a farmer and businessman whose family settled in Edmonton in 1881. His grandfather was a well-known fur trader and later became one of the first school teachers in Edmonton.

Since graduating from college, Mr. Secord has followed a career in agriculture, property development, and related business.

The constituency ranges from Morinville and St. Albert in the north to Ponoka and Rimbey in the south.

D. V. Highlights

BY MRS. EDITH DEBY

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Albert were among those attending the opening of the legislature last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Arnold and Kathleen were weekend visitors of Mrs. Arnold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hines Sr. Mr. Arnold works at the University of Alberta.

Mr. Freeman Hill is in hospital in Fort Saskatchewan. Mr. Hill had been visiting his daughter Eleanor, in that town when it became necessary for him to go to hospital.

Mrs. Alfred Madsen makes scrapbooks. One of special interest is made from clippings taken from the various newspapers we have had in our town since 1955.

Mrs. Thelma Cuthbertson is getting about after her operation and hopes to be able to go back to work in two weeks time.

Mr. Ed Hines Jr. was able to celebrate his ninth birthday on February 29th. Although Eddie gets a year older each year just like the rest of us he can only celebrate every fourth year. This year was "Celebration Year" and was marked by a house party to which close friends were invited.

Lieutenant-Governor Grant MacEwan will be among the distinguished guests at a Cornelia R Wood Appreciation Night to be held in the Community Centre in Stony Plain on March 14th.

Mrs. Wood was M.L.A. for thirty-four years for Stony Plain Constituency. She has spent the greater part of her life in Stony Plain. Mrs. Wood has filled numerous public positions and has many friends and admirers throughout this area. Appreciation Night will start with a banquet and later there will be a display of photographs, clippings, awards ect with people on hand to explain the various items. I know we speak for many people here when we say "Thank you, Mrs. Wood, for your untiring efforts on behalf of your fellow citizens."

Tickets for the banquet may be obtained from either the Treasury Branch or Parkland Drug in Stony Plain at a cost of $1.50.

not enough returning to the people. They felt there was not enough communication between the west end of the County of Parkland and the county seat in Stony Plain.

Representatives from Cynthia, however, felt that their communication line was good - they had established their own contact with the recreation Office and are now pretty well "in-the-know".

Councillor George Mann pointed out that the $52,000 available for recreational facility development from the county is allotted on a priority basis. He explained that all communities had been asked to submit their needs, and the ones who acted and got their requests in were then sorted on a priority basis. He said that the $52,000 is again available this year.

Another major complaint the people had, was the fact that the former I.D. had given $71,000 to the development of the Drayton Valley Civic Centre. But because they cannot get their 1/3 share of the cost of upkeep and over-expenditures, they are liable to lose their equity in the building.

As Mr. Zander said, all areas in the west end are complaining of their treatment by the county. "Every time they ask for a dollar they can't get it," he said.

He felt that the only answer to these problems is with the local government and the three alternatives.

Directors of the association are still working on the selection of an M.C. for the event which will get underway with a social hour between 6:00 and 7:30 p.m. followed by dinner.

Tickets are now on sale at $25.00 per couple (man and woman) and $15.00 single.

Proceeds will be used by the Athletic Association to further the objectives of minor sport in the community. Directors hope that they might accomplish, by their own initiative, the generation of funds which are often obtained only by way of grants and donations.

What's Happening in Schools?

Most of us have a good idea about what is happening in our schools, having been a student sometime in the past. "Education Week" gives us a special opportunity to bring us up to date and to see today's curriculum in action. This article will explain briefly how the curriculum is planned and will outline some of the defined objectives of education in Alberta.

The word "curriculum" encompasses all the learning experiences provided by the school. It includes all experiences planned in advance and in the day-to-day encounters a child has with teachers, other students and instructional materials. The County schools are guided by an overall curriculum plan for the province. Each school develops a program, in turn, to meet the needs and interests of students in each community. Curriculum decisions are made at the provincial, county, and school level on goals and emphases, subject content, learning resources, classroom procedures and methods of evaluation. The Department of Education provides programs of study and curriculum guides. It also prescribes textbooks for use in Alberta schools. The School Committee approves the instructional programs offered in the schools, and may prescribe the use of other textbooks and instructional materials which are not provincially authorized. The principal is responsible for the total instructional program in the schools, and teachers prepare daily plans and activities to carry out the program.

Every plan or activity in the school must fulfill an identifiable purpose related to the general objectives of education. Objectives are stated in provincial documents called "programs of studies" for elementary, junior high and senior high schools. Examples condensed from these statements follow. "The major purpose of elementary education is to foster the fullest development of each child's potentialities. Direction for this development is provided by the following behavioral goals:

1. Abilities and skills: Each child should increase his capabilities to: (a) Communicate with others orally and in writing, in listening and in reading. (b) Find, organize and use information. (c) Use numbers and mathematical processes effectively. (d) Solve problems of a social and scientific nature, and (e) Express himself through artistic media.
2. Understandings: Each child should learn to recognize the significance of: (a) The social life of expanding communities; (b) The interdependence of all forms of life; (c) The effects of environment on human life.
3. Attitudes: Through suitable experiences each child should be helped to develop: (a) Self-respect--marked by control, discipline and direction through his own initiative. (b) Creativeness--marked by personal expression that becomes unique and revealing. (c) Cooperation--marked by consideration for the rights and feelings of others and a willingness to share. (d) Responsibility--marked by readiness to carry tasks to completion, to behave honestly with himself and with others, and to accept the consequence of his own actions.

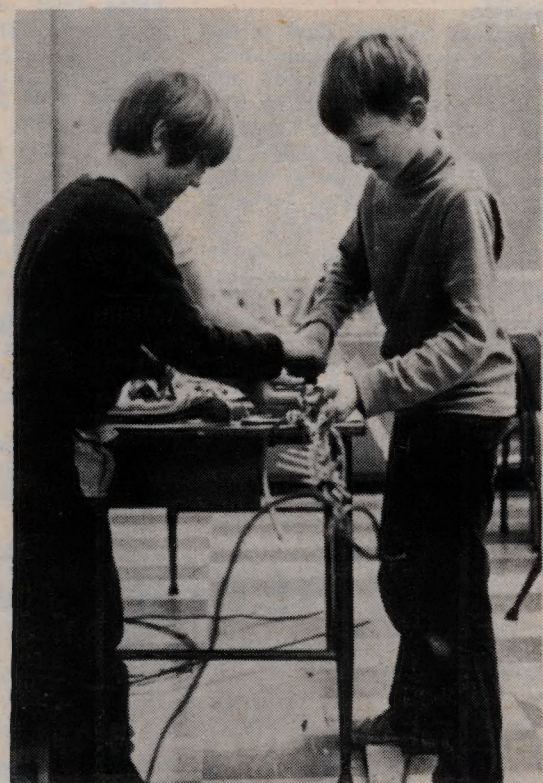

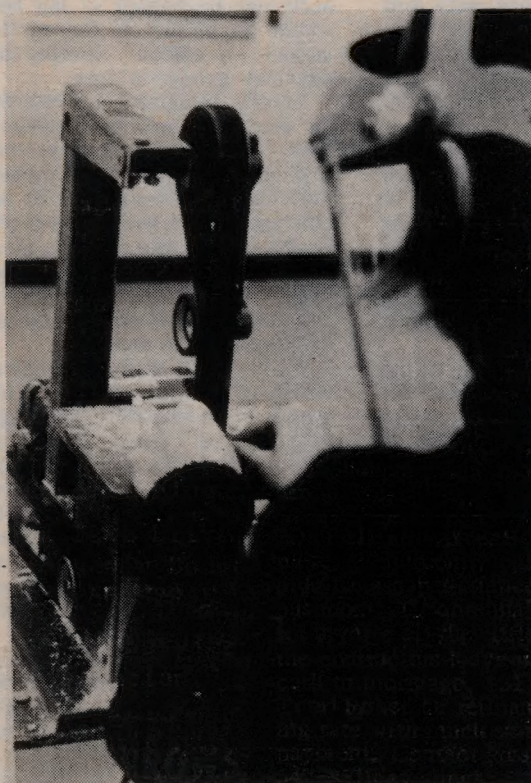

(e) Reverence--marked by a conviction of Deity, and a regarding for His supreme handiwork, mankind.

4. Appreciations: Through suitable experiences each child should acquire an appreciation of: (a) The dignity, work and possibilities in the individual, reflected in a high standard of conduct for himself, and a high regard for other people and their values and beliefs. (b) The dignity, value and achievements of work in science, in religion, in philosophy, in art, in literature, in craftsmanship, in honest labor everywhere. (c) The manifestations and beauties of nature - both in the natural state and as revealed through science.

The Battle of The Bottle

THE MALE ALCOHOLIC

At 35 or so he is a man on the way up: 12 years on the job and steady promotions. He is also a man on the road to alcoholism, a downward journey that began at the daily lunch table or in the club car. Social drinking makes him a candidate for alcoholism, he still faces the very real threat of liver, stomach or kidney disorders that are just as lethal.

Social drinking and its definition vary from person to person and social group to social group. For the middle and upper-level executive it is the one or two martinis at lunch, the one or two calming drinks in the club car on the trip home, the apertif with the wife. For some, the drinking never goes beyond that. For others, the need keeps increasing until it is an addiction -- alcoholism -- and that upward climb on the corporate ladder reverses itself.

Less than five per cent of the nation's nine-million alcoholics are on the "skid rows" of America's big cities. The bulk are found in homes, factories, offices and communities. They have families, most are employable. A large number are in the arts or the carpeted luxury of executive suites.

Authorities have pointed to social drinking as a health hazard in itself, and also a stepping off point towards alcohol addiction. Interestingly, though, once addicted, an alcoholic does not necessarily drink more than a so-called social drinker. In fact, he may drink less. The determination of his disease would then depend on when he drinks, how he drinks, and why.

But for the wife, family, friends or business associates, the first sign of alcoholism is usually an increase in social drinking that eventually leads to bouts of drunkenness. As the disease progresses, the alcoholic's life style is affected: his relationship with his wife is hampered and he begins to fall down on the job. In the advanced stages of the disease the victim is usually completely unable to control his drinking. He may no longer have an established family life or be able to hold a job.

Even at this point the alcoholic can be helped -- but help would be better in the earlier stages -- before irreparable physical damage is done.

Family treatment and help for an alcoholic may be a difficult task -- perhaps impossible -- and professional help may be the best solution. Emotional maturity and courage are needed, and very often the person who can help alcoholics outside the family may become confused and destructive if a member of his own family becomes an active alcoholic.

Wives may find themselves blamed for everything that's wrong in an alcoholic marriage. After enough blaming the charge may become true. But the wife did not bring on the onset of alcoholism. She may allow the illness to go unnoticed until it has reached a critical point because of lack of knowledge or an unwillingness to deal with the situation.

In the typical alcoholic family, the victim drinks and the wife yells. The wife of an alcoholic has no more right to say, "if you loved me you wouldn't drink," than she has to say, "if you loved me you wouldn't have tuberculosis." Alcoholism is an illness, and illness is a condition, not an act.

The first thing to do is to rec-

Report From Parliament Hill

By Allen Sulatycky, M.P.

Jean Chretien, Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, has made public plans to expand the system of National Parks on a dramatic scale.

The total area of the system, with the addition of three new northern parks, will be increased by more than 50 per cent.

The new parks, Canada's first above the sixtieth parallel, will cover some of the most spectacular areas the Territories have to offer.

Kluane National Park, totalling 8,500 square miles, is located in the southwest corner of the Yukon Territory. 19,850-foot Mount Logan, Canada's highest peak, is within the boundaries of the park. Much of the area of Kluane is comprised of mountains in the St. Elias Range, and the icefield of the St. Elias, one of the world's largest non-polar glacier systems.

Nahanni National Park is located in the southwest corner of the Northwest Territories, and covers 1,840 square miles. The South Nahanni River is Canada's most spectacular wild river, and the best of it is now protected within the park. Also included is Virginia Falls. Twice the height of Niagara, this fall shows a face of over four vertical acres of water. Three major canyons reaching 4,000 feet in height, and a vast number of caves and sulphur hot springs also lie within this new park.

Baffin Island National Park, covering 8,200 square miles, is the first Canadian park located above the arctic circle. It rests mainly north and west of Pang-nirtung Pass in the Cumberland Peninsula of Baffin Island.

One side is bounded by a coastline incised by roughly graded valleys and fjords. Some of the fjords reach up to 30 miles inland, are walled by vertical cliffs rising 3,000 feet or higher above the sea.

Inland lie the Penny Highlands, dominated by the Penny Ice Cap. This cap rises from 2,000 feet in the northwest to 6,000 feet in some areas, and covers over 2,200 square miles. It is one of the largest ice caps in the northern hemisphere.

The addition of these three northern parks means that ten new parks have been created since 1968, whereas only two parks were set aside in the preceding 30 years. More than this, Mr. Chretien has set as a goal a total of 60 National Parks by the year 2000.

On another front, eight canals in Eastern Canada have been brought under the jurisdiction of the Conservation Program, which also operates Canada's National Parks. This signifies that the parks system will expand from the now principal area of national oriented areas.

The current expansion of the National Parks system, and the formation of Heritage Canada, represent welcome steps in the direction of conserving Canada for future generations of Canadians.

Another Tight Little Organization?

Why should anyone require a license to stuff a dead bird or animal?

An Edmonton man found out the hard way that amateur taxidermy is expensive -- $100 worth in provincial judge's court for stuffing a grey owl which he claimed he found dead and was unaware of the law regarding practising taxidermy without a license. Possession of the owl without a permit was also included in the charges to which the man pleaded guilty.

Have the taxidermists joined the many others in organizing a tight little trade association that frowns on infringement from outside the ranks while enjoying the smiling benevolence of government? Or is the law an attempt by government to protect wildlife from those who would gain trophies by illegal methods?

We don't have the answers, but would be rather irritated if the former were the case.

Why shouldn't anyone who comes by a dead bird or animal honestly, have a go at stuffing it if that's his thing. Selling his handiwork, however, is something else and gets into the business license area and is an owl of a different color.

Ordeal In a Hole

A six-year-old boy spent seven hours of terror trapped in a hole 27 feet down before he was rescued in California last week.

We admire the effort and individual bravery that went into his rescue, but wonder how in the world he and his brother were allowed to play in an area where hazards of this kind existed. The boys were flying kites on the site of a road construction project where the holes were drilled for concrete bridge pilings.

The boy tumbled into the hole at 5:20 p.m., possibly after the majority of workers had quit for the day. If this was the case, were the holes simply to be left open -- and if so, shouldn't the area have been under constant surveillance to prevent the unwary from venturing too close? If work was still in progress, why were the boys allowed near?

The story received extensive coverage in the U.S. and Canada and should serve a purpose in creating an awareness in responsible adults of the many kinds of situations in which children can be carried from care-free play to suffering or death in the space of a few seconds.

ognize the illness. Then get help. The family cannot deal with the illness alone. But during treatment, the family serves an important role: they reassure, they support and they give love when love is most needed. It's no longer considered true that the only help for the alcoholic is the alcoholic himself. Treatment may be easier if the alcoholic admits his own disease, but if not, there is still help. He can be made to see his affliction.

Nomination Convention

all the centres to check memberships and oversee the issuance and collection of ballots. They will be responsible for the safekeeping of the locked and sealed ballot box and the unused ballots at all times.

Following the voting at the final meeting, the Returning Officer and his deputy will oversee the counting of all the ballots to decide the winner.

The ballots and ballot box will require special consideration to insure their safety. Prior to the commencement of the first meeting, the empty ballot box will be examined each candidate will affix a padlock and retain the key. The Returning Officer will affix a seal to the ballot box, as well.

Following the voting at this first meeting, the locked and sealed ballot box and the unused ballots will be placed in a heavy canvas bag and the bag will be sealed by each of the candidates and the Returning Officer. The bag will then be transported to a place of safekeeping by the Returning Officer and his deputy to be retrieved in time for the next meeting.

All locks and seals will be inspected by the candidates and the returning Officer and his deputy, prior to each meeting. This procedure will continue until all ten meetings are completed.

At the conclusion of the voting at the tenth meeting in Drayton Valley, all of the ballots will be counted.

The ballot, itself, was carefully considered. It was prepared with the names of the candidates listed in alphabetical order, according to surname.

In order to abide by the constitution of the Federal Progressive Conservative Association of Rocky Mountain, the winning candidate must obtain an absolute majority of the votes cast. Provision had to be made for the circumstance where no candidate received an absolute majority of the votes on the first ballot.

Since it was impractical to return to all ten centres to conduct a second ballot, the method of voting had to reflect more than just the first choice of the voter. Indeed, it had to reflect the voter's order of choice for all of the candidates.

It was therefore decided to instruct the voters to mark their ballots by putting a 1 after the name of their first choice, a 2 after their second choice and so on. When the ballots are counted, the number 1 choice on each ballot will be counted. Should one candidate receive an absolute majority of the number 1 votes, he will be declared the winner automatically.

Should no candidate receive an absolute majority, then the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes will drop out and his ballots will be counted again, according to the second, choices listed by the voters. These votes are then added to the totals of the appropriate, remaining candidates.

This procedure continues until one candidate receives an absolute majority and will work for any number of candidates, assuring a winner. It also assures all of the voters of being able to exercise their franchise through to the final selection of the winner. Provisions are also made to deal with tie votes.

All ten meetings will follow a standard format. The meeting will commence at 8:00 p.m. The issuance of ballots and sale of membership cards occurs prior to admission to the meeting place and will begin in advance of 8:00 p.m. and continue until 8:30 p.m. No ballots will be issued after the first candidate begins to speak.

The meeting Chairman will explain the rules governing speeches and voting procedures. The candidates will then draw lots for order of speaking at the meeting. Each candidate will be allowed a maximum of 15 minutes which time can be used as the candidate chooses. The Chairman will signify the end of the 15 minutes.

When all candidates have spoken, balloting will then take place with each voter handing to the Returning Officer his marked and folded ballot which the Returning Officer will then deposit in the ballot box. Any other activities, such as guest speakers, will follow the candidates' speeches and the balloting.

The tenth and final meeting of the extraordinary nomination convention will be held in Drayton Valley on Saturday, March 18. Following the speeches of the candidates and the balloting, the format changes. The ballot box will then be taken to a counting room and examined and unlocked by the candidates and the Returning Officer and all of the ballots will be counted as previously described.

As a windup to this ten part nomination convention, the Drayton Valley meeting will be highlighted by the introduction of and greetings from several prominent Conservative guests, both federal and provincial. In addition, this gala event will also feature entertainment.

The culmination of the evening will be the announcement of the winner of the Nomination Convention, the standard-bearer for the Progressive Conservatives of Rocky Mountain in the next federal election.

MEETINGS PLANNED

Our eight lecture series on the "Legal Aspects of Farming" is certainly meeting the expectations of those families from our district attending. Its purpose is to create awareness and provide information to farm families on a variety of legal problems, estate planning and taxation.

In particular, the sessions on easements, trespassing, farm business agreements and the Status of Women Report have provoked considerable discussion.

For those who did not attend, there are 10 Alberta Statutes which you should be aware of. These are available from Queen's Printers Office, 11510 Kingsway Avenue, Edmonton at about 35¢ per copy.

1. The Farm Implement Act - obligation put on dealer protects farmer.

2. Land Titles Act - when a lease is entered into over three years a Caveat should be registered against the title to protect lessees right against third parties.

3. The Dower Act - important to women.

4. The Judicature Act - period of redemption for mortgage on farm property is 12 months.

5. The Seizures Act - specifies what can be seized.

6. The Exemptions Act - protects farmer in areas of things that can't be seized.

7. The Tax Recovery Act - local authority can sell your property in lieu of unpaid property taxes.

8. Landlord and Tenant Act.

9. Conditional Sales Act.

10. Bill of Sale Act.

CLEAVES

Rapeweed producers have a new problem confronting them during 1972. A new weed known as Cleaves is now making an appearance in a few areas and which seed we are told is practically impossible to separate from rapeseed.

Cleaves stems are weak and sprawling, two to four feet long. The plant appears sticky since bristles are on the four corners of the stem. The narrow leaves, in groups of six or eight, are about an inch long and have bristles on the mid-rib and the edges. The weed, belongs to the mint family. Cleaver seeds are ball shaped and covered with short spines, light grey in color and are similar in size to rapeseed. Seed pods covered with stiff hooked bristles, have two spherical halves.

At present there is no known chemical to control this weed, but it is hoped that information on new chemicals will likely be available in the 1972 crop recommendation.

When talking about rape production in 1972, let's look at the total problems involved. For example, why plant rape crops on weed infested fields? We must

Perseverance Pays For Bingo Player

Mrs. Elsie Marks of Breton is not to be discouraged when she is out-bingoed at a Breton Elks Bingo.

On numerous prior occasions, Mrs. Marks would bingo for the grand prize and yet end up with a consolation prize. Last Tuesday, however, Mrs. Marks demonstrated her determination by again bingo-ing for this event. This time it was not the consolation prize that she took home. The next Breton Elks Bingo will be held on March 7 at 8:00 P.M. in the Breton Recreation Centre.

be aware of insects and diseases, but let's not forget about weeds. We have observed many fields and estimate very significant yield reductions due to weeds alone.

A film and slide presentation on a particular herbicide called "Treflan" is scheduled for Monday, March 27, 1972 in the Elks Hall at Stony Plain, time 8:00 p.m. This presentation will be of particular interest to rapeseed growers and others.

Lindale Club Plans Events

At the regular meeting of the Lindale 4-H Swine Club at the Robb home, plans for a tobogganing party and public speaking were discussed. First public speaking practice was scheduled for March 5th at the Lindale School.

Heather Robb, the Lindale Club contestant, won the Warburg Ice Carnival Queen title on February 27th.

Rebels Lose Provincial Opener

By DOUG BARNES

The Rebels finished off the regular league schedule on a winning note by downing the Fort Saskatchewan Huskies 5 to 3. A good crowd-pleasing hockey game.

Colin Grier of the Huskies got things stirred up at 5:38 of the first period when he decided to take on Sam Belcourt in a little fistcuffs, I think it was a draw. Only 11 penalties were handed out in the game by referee Eric Paterson.

The Huskies now meet Wetaskiwin in the league best of five semi-finals. Tuesday the Rebels meet Camrose at home in the first game of best of five semi-final league play off.

Saturday night the Rebels travelled to Wetaskiwin and took a 4 to 1 loss in the first game of a two game total point provincial series. The next game will be played in Drayton Valley next Saturday night.

Down 3 goals against the Colonels is a tough position to be in. But the Rebels are normally a high scoring club. They are capable of overcoming the three goals.

There is one thing you can be sure of it will be a good hockey game. There is no easy game left from now on. Tuesday should be a good one. The Rebels haven't beaten Camrose this season.

I didn't see Saturday's game, but Wetaskiwin shut out the Rebels for two periods. Their only goal came at 15:05 of the first period, scored by Frank Rog-

The Colonels out-shot the Rebels 37 to 23. This doesn't look like goal tending was the problem. Barry Pankewicz was in the net and looks like he was fairly busy.

The scoring summary for February 29th as follows: Drayton Valley 5 - Fort Saskatchewan 3.

First Period - Drayton Valley, 1. Hodgson (Belcourt) 3:41; and 2. Davie 6:15.

Second Period - Fort Saskatchewan 3. Kjenner 9:18.

Third Period - Drayton Valley 4. Elliott (Hodgson-Belcourt) 9:58; 5. Assman (Day) 16:14; Fort Saskatchewan 6. Prins (Downey-Lamoureux) 17:32; 7. Thomlinson (Prins) 18:30; and Drayton Valley

8. Belcourt 19:27.

Shots on goal by Drayton Valley - 15, 13, 13, 41; and Fort Saskatchewan - 11, 15, 15, 41.

Scoring summary for Saturday, March 4th - Drayton Valley 1; and Wetaskiwin 4.

First Period - Drayton Valley 1. Roggeveen (Belcourt) 15:05.

Second Period - Wetaskiwin 2. McEachern 1:50; 3. Soucy (Sterzer-Schaefer) 5:15; and 4. McEachern (Schaefer) 8:09.

Third Period - Schaefer (McEachern) 11:56.

Shots on goal by Drayton Valley 23; and Wetaskiwin 37.

QUESTION What is being done to determine where the children in the area annexed by the City of Edmonton will attend school in September, 1972?

ANSWER -- A questionnaire has been distributed to children living in the area, for completion by their parents. The purpose of the questionnaire is to determine how many school age and pre-school age children are in the area, and what the preferences of the families are in regards to where they wish their children to attend school.

Upon receiving the completed questionnaires, the information will be compiled and the City and County Officials will then get together to make the necessary arrangements.

Any families with pre-school or school-age children, who will be residing in the annexed area on September 1, 1972 should complete the questionnaire. Copies may be obtained from the principal of the Winterburn School, or from the County office in Stony Plain. The deadline for receiving completed questionnaires is March 17.

How to Look for a Summer Job

The following article was prepared by the Department of Manpower to assist students and other young people who will soon be entering the labor market in search of summer employment.

WHEN DO YOU START LOOKING

Early. Many employers say that students should start looking sooner. By starting early, you can go after the jobs you'd really like. Later, you may have to go for the money because all jobs are going fast.

WHERE DO YOU START LOOKING?

How about your own connections? Fathers, brothers, businessmen, uncles, cousins, friends and neighbours? Take a few minutes and list everyone you know and everyone they know who might be helpful. Then, approach the people on your list and ask, "Do they hire students where you work? Who's the person to talk to?" If you get some leads ask your friends or relative if you can use his name as an introduction. And, most important, follow up tips promptly. Competition is keen.

If your school or college has a placement centre, that's another good starting point. It has leads and can tell you how to go after them. If there's no placement centre you might try the guidance teacher -- jobs are his job and he knows where and how to look.

Newspapers are another friend. Many have "parttime and seasonal help wanted" columns in their classified sections.

A lot of summer jobs start with part-time jobs. So, if you can line up an after-four and weekend job now it might develop into summer employment.

Canada Manpower Centres (you'll find them in the phone book) will be happy to assist you too. Many have special student placement offices where you can register for work. And in many cities there are independent community agencies that are set up to help students. Check around.

Then, of course, you can create your own jobs. Grass cutting, car washing, baby sitting, gardening, sewing, etc. Try it.

HOW TO GET A FOOT IN THE DOOR

The telephone is a great door opener. Use it for making appointments, contacts and inquiries. For example, if you've got a company in mind but don't have a name, you can ask the company's switch-board operator to help you. She'll give you the name of the personnel manager or whoever's in charge of hiring (note correct spelling and pronunciation if it's tricky). The telephone is good for "out of the blue" calls too. If a firm appears to be a possible employer, there's nothing wrong with calling on speculation. Simply introduce yourself as a student looking for summer work, ask to speak to the person in charge of personnel and inquire if you can make an appointment or receive an application form.

Another good way to get a foot in the door is to knock on some doors. Employers prefer face-to-face meetings. With stores and companies in your neighbourhood, you'll find it pays to make a personal appearance and ask about the prospects. If you don't get an interview on the spot, you may at least get a name and an indication of the potential. One important note: go alone, no pals or parents.

A letter and attached resume is another good technique you can employ. Besides being the only practical way to make out-of-town contacts, it's also a business-like way to present yourself locally. A letter gives you a chance to phrase things carefully and concisely, taking your time to do it. It should be your best.

APPLICATION LETTERS AND RESUMES

There are scads of books around on business letters and resume writing and you might wish to study one. Your school or public library will help locate them. Meanwhile, here are some tips on application letters you might find useful. Be brief. Keep the language simple and unflowery. State that you're looking for a job, how old you are, what education you have (in broad terms, your resume will list full qualifications), your work experience and any hobbies or special qualifications that would equip you for the job you're after. Don't worry if you don't have a lot of experience; he's not hiring a president, you know. Give the employer as much information as possible in as few words as you can. Be dead honest. And keep asking yourself, "what does this man want in an employee?"

Finally, remember that good things aren't written -- they're rewritten. The resume, which you always send with a letter of application and carry with you to the interview, is simply a detailed listing of you.

If you feel they're required, you might want to include the names of people for references. Always get permission from the people you wish to list and never use relatives. Teachers and former employers are best.

GETTING THE MOST OUT OF INTERVIEWS

Your own intelligence and the nature of the job will tell you how to dress and groom for an interview. Looking neat and businesslike is essential, first impressions are lasting impressions. Also, know as much about the company as possible -- how old it is, where its other offices and plants are located, what its products or services are, etc. The more you know about a company the more you can talk about the things in which it's interested.

Look, talk, act and think as though you want the job. Don't be coy, be determined. Finally, nine interviewers out of ten invariably ask questions like, "Tell me a few things about yourself" or "What makes you interested in our company?" So, prepare your answers in advance.

Remember that everyone has something to offer if he will only analyze his abilities, talents and interests correctly and emphasize his strong points as they relate to the job he is seeking. If you can do that successfully in your letter, resume and interview -- and if you keep trying and don't get discouraged -- sooner or later you'll find an organization which has been looking for you.

REEVE'S REPORT

By Les Miller, Reeve
County of Parkland

The past month has again been a most hectic one. The audit and preliminary preparation of the financial statement for 1971 is now completed. We will again come out with a surplus in both sides of the County operation, School and Municipal. You will be receiving your copy of the condensed financial statement and reports of the various departments in the mail in the next two weeks. Anyone wishing a copy of the financial statement in the old form may pick one up at the County Office in Drayton Valley or Stony Plain. You are reminded that the annual meeting will be held in Drayton Valley at the Frank Maddock High School on Saturday, April 5 beginning at 10:00 a.m.

Our proposed No-Shooting By-Law continues to generate interest. Our newest proposal, after hearing the many presentations in regard to the by-law, will be to extend present restricted area to cover that portion of the County east of the 5th Meridian and prohibit discharge of firearms on improved road-allowances in the remainder of the County. While even this may seem quite restrictive, when one sees the arrogance of some individuals and their total disregard for the rural areas that some of the letters we receive indicate, it becomes more and more obvious that some type of protection is required. The proposed by-law is now being prepared by our solicitor and will again be advertised before a decision to implement it is considered. It appears this proposal will get the support of the Fish & Wildlife Department.

After reviewing applications for our County Police Force, Const. Keith Nicol of our force was promoted to the position of Chief. He is very dedicated and has already shown that he will maintain the high level of performance our force has achieved.

We finally received our series of slides from project Photo 71, which was filmed last summer. Mr. Vinson did an excellent job on them. It is a slide series promoting the County and does cover the entire area. The series was shown at the Spruce Grove Trade Fair February 25 and 26 and was well received. The series is available for showing and any group wishing to use it should contact our Development Control Officer, Mr. Frank Florkewich, at the County Office in Stony Plain. The series has commentary with it and we have the total package for viewing including the screen.

We have made an offer on a parcel of land in the south-east area of the County as a possible nuisance ground site. The offer was made subject to getting approval for the site. If the offer is accepted, the area will be circularized and if the residents do not wish a nuisance ground, then I am sure Council won't spend money to force something on the people that they don't want. If they do want it then we are prepared to establish it.

Council has again agreed to continue the policy started last year, of putting one mill into aiding communities in building or up-grading recreational facilities. This program was well received and did a great deal to help small communities make some much needed improvements in their facilities.

The government has notified us that our request for an extension of the date for filing homeowner grant forms for 1971 cannot be granted. They felt enough warning as to the deadline for filing had been given.

Following a request from a delegation from Drayton Valley, Council is, again considering employment of a preventive social service officer and the related programs. We would appreciate your comments in this regard. It is a service our area now needs.

The number of ratepayers conveying their thoughts and ideas directly to Council continues to grow and we are very pleased with this. It certainly is an aid to us in formulating policies. Thanks and keep it up.

Auxiliary Meeting

The next meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary will be held March 9th at 8:00 p.m. in the Nurses Residence. Members are asked to bring a hand-made item to the meeting.

Entwistle News

Several of the Entwistle children took part in the Kinsmen Carnival February 26 and 27. Vera Starling skipped her team to win the Grand Challenge at Wildwood on the weekend. Players with her were Shirley Sullivan, Rose Hoople and Addie Bush.

Several persons in Entwistle attended the funeral of the late Otto Wolff in Edmonton February 28th.

Mrs. J. Parker and Sandra of Edmonton spent several days with Muriel and Howard Johnson.

A chosen daughter has come to the home of Pastor Cecil and Ruby Cowie. Hope the boys enjoy their baby sister Leanna.

Women's Institute Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the meeting room in the town hall February 28.

Mrs. Burrows reported on the meeting of W.I. members with Town Council in which the future of the W.I. rest room was discussed. It was pointed out that the room was in demand for the meeting of small groups and was being used by the Christian Action Group as a centre for distributing used clothes. Council requested that a fuller report on the number of small groups using the facility be prepared and presented at the council's meeting March 9.

The annual handicraft tea will be held in Winterburn this year. The date has not yet been set.

The W.I. executive has drawn up an interesting program for the year including a trip to the Devon Botanical Gardens.

An interesting feature of the Constituency Convention to be held in May at Wabamun will be an exhibit of Hobby Collections. This is not a competition.

If enough interested persons can be found in our town, a writing course may be offered next year.

Following its usual policy, W.I. will present cookbooks as prizes to students of Household Economics in grades 7, 8, 9, and 10.

Mrs. Hammerlind and Mrs. Rasmussen will attend the district conference to be held at the Corona Hotel the second week in March.

The March meeting will be held in the basement of the Town Hall March 27. Visitors and prospective members are most welcome.

United Church Experiments

The Drayton Valley United Church is experimenting with more effective techniques of presenting Christian Education material.

To compensate for this, they have found it necessary to change their Sunday school classes from Sunday morning to Wednesday afternoon at 4:00.

This change will permit the children to participate in more meaningful and varied activities, but will be dependent upon the number of children that attend.

If you have children already attending, or would be interested in attending, please note the time change.

Family Night

On Wednesday evening, March 8th "Family Evening" will be held by All Saints Anglican Church. A pot luck supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. followed by a puppet show for the children. Dr. D. Blecher will be the guest speaker and show films on his work in Uganda.

Challengers Defeated in Provincials

On Saturday, March 4th a large crowd gathered at the Drayton Valley Civic Centre to watch the Burrows Motors Challengers play their second game of a two-game, total point series with the Westlock Bantams.

In spite of the home crowd's encouragement and the Challengers best efforts, the Westlock team came out victorious with a 6 - 1 score. The Challengers outshot Westlock 24 - 17, but simply did not get any breaks. Challengers lone goal was set up by Swendseid and Kowal and tallied by Shimbashi at the 17:15 mark of the first period.

On Tuesday, February 29th, the Challengers played the first game of this series in Westlock and were defeated 3 - 2. Hook got both of the Challenger goals, with Boulter and Swendseid assisting on the second goal. Thus, the Westlock Bantams won the semi-final, two-game series 9 - 3 and go on to meet the winner of the Leduc-Jasper series.

The Challenger's coaches and the manager feel that the Challengers played an excellent game on Saturday and did everything they possibly could to win the series, but the breaks just didn't come. They wish to thank all of the fans who came to the game on Saturday and for their support throughout the season.

To date, the Challengers have played 27 games and their individual scoring standings are as follows:

SUB-MITS

FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Education Week brings into sharper focus the needs of our younger generation. And while the school does its best to instill the basics of the Three R's and a smattering of the arts it still remains to the parents, the community, the peer group and the mass media to round out the child's education. For after all they have had the child for six years before he begins school and have him for the other eighteen or so hours of the day. The following article by A. Powell Davies echoes the Courses of Studies that the teachers use but it is entitled.

A CREED FOR PARENTS

Let our children learn to be honest, both with themselves and with others. This is a basic human value. In its simplest terms, it is the capacity to distinguish clearly between what is and what is not, and thus to deal effectually with reality.

Let our children learn to love truth. No matter whence it comes, so it be truth let them freely accept it, even when it goes against them. If they do this, they will not be hampered by prejudice, for wherever truth can enter, prejudice cannot long remain. Moreover, by fidelity to truth the mind is nourished and becomes well grown.

Let our children find courage and discover that they are stronger than the things of which they are afraid. Courage in our dealings with our own lives, courage in speaking out for the right, in condemning injustice, in standing for good against evil, courage to remain loyal to a deep conviction at whatever cost.

Let our children cultivate breadth of humanity: a cordial welcome not merely for the factional, the provincial, the partisan when they are good, but for whatever is beneficial to the human race no matter whence it comes.

Let our children cultivate kindness, for it does not often come without cultivation, and it is needed; the world is too harsh.

Let our children cultivate humility. Let our children learn that they are like other people, even the people that they tend to despise; and that there is good and bad in all of us, and that each of us must make a hard struggle to bring the good out on top. Then, because of their own lost battles, they will acquire a gentle wisdom and walk softly where other people might get hurt.

Thanks to Mrs. Miner (grade one) for sharing this with us.

investigate

Your best protection against consumer problems and misleading sales practices is your own awareness . . . and your willingness to investigate.

If a salesman or company misrepresents a product or service in order to sell it to you, he may have broken the law. The first thing to do is to confront the man or company managers. Legitimate businesses sometimes make mistakes, which they are anxious to correct.

But if the salesman or company refuses to deal with you fairly, bring it to the attention of the Consumer Affairs Branch. It is the responsibility of this Branch to investigate consumer complaints and inform you of your rights.

Tomahawk News

Mr. A. Pierce, the Drayton Valley Music teacher and band master will be visiting the Tomahawk School on March 10th at 1:00 p.m. With him will be the Drayton Valley School Chorus which will put on a concert for the Tomahawk School. Since this is "Education Week", everyone is invited to come and enjoy this program.

On Friday evening, March 10, at 8:00 p.m. Mr. Pierce will be back with the Drayton Valley Band. Everyone is welcome to come to hear them play for an hour. Then Mr. Pierce will discuss the starting of "The Tomahawk Band". Anyone interested in being in the band please be present.

So let's have a really big turnout and hopefully launch our "Tomahawk Band."

We wish to correct some mistakes in the news from past weeks. Regarding the second topic by the advisory committee, it should read. "The second topic presented was the ceasing of school bus operation in severe weather. It seems the school committee has no set rule on the matter and is now left up to the discretion of the drivers, etc."

The Firemen's Bonspiel will be on March 10, 11 and 12th and not on March 4, 5 and 6th. Sorry about these mistakes.

Don't forget the Tomahawk and District Club's annual meeting on March 20th. Got any Beefs? This is the time to air them. "A hall" will be the main subject.

Maurice McCullagh and Mr.

Holman, the Superintendent of Schools, met with a committee from Tomahawk and District Club at the school to look things over to see if the school gym could be used by the public instead of the hall. More information on this will be presented at the annual meeting. It's everyone's problem and concern so please be present or forever hold your peace.

The Millbank Uniform local had a bonspiel on Sunday, February 27 at the Tomahawk Curling rink. Winner of the first event was Walter Medd's team and the winner of the second event was Theodore Reich's team. The report was that they all had a most enjoyable time.

House cleaning time will soon be here. If you find any ball or hockey uniforms kicking around in the closet or basement while you're cleaning, bag them up and send them to Alma Schadeck. You'd be surprised the uniforms that are turning up from several years back. It would be very much appreciated.

Annual Canvass By Red Cross This Month

This is "Red Cross Month" across Canada, and during this month a canvass for funds is made in towns across the nation.

In 1971, $1,111.42 was raised in Drayton Valley. Once again, about 50 people are participating in the canvass of the town and surrounding country areas.

The Red Cross is the agency responsible for the collection and dispersal of blood in Canada. Every week, the Drayton Valley Hospital is recipient of several pints of blood. In emergencies, people have to make special trips to Red Cross House in Edmonton to supply the needs of someone in the local hospital.

During the summer, the children at the local swimming pool receive Red Cross awards for different levels of swimming experience.

Greatly appreciated but little-known services of the Red Cross also include the loan of sick-room equipment, wheel chairs, and crutches to people who are in temporary need. Fire victims are given enough bedding for every member of their family, plus personal health kits.

The work of Red Cross goes on quietly and efficiently year-round. Your aid does so much for so many.

on its way without the familiar switching sounds in the background.

The disappearance of these sounds is the result of new electronic switching equipment, installed to provide more efficient DDD service to Edmonton and district customers.

The start of the 640 c.c. class snowmobile race which was held as part of the 4th Annual Kin-Capades Ice Carnival weekend on February 26 and 27. Winner of this event was Garry Lindahl (second from left).

"The Book Worm" was the first place winner in the ice sculpture contest which was held as part of the Ice Carnival weekend.

A shot of the rugged action in the girls' vs ladies' hockey game. The girls' team (white) went on to defeat the ladies. Later in the day the Kinsmen defeated the Evansburg Midgets.

It's all part of being Mayor. Guy Dompnier gets a brisk ride down main street of Evansburg during the toboggan races held as part of the 4th Annual Kin-Capades Ice Carnival. Also participating in the race were Bob Bowie, President of the Evansburg Kinsmen Club and Fred Fausak, President of the Evansburg Legion.

Add a teen dance, a ladies hockey game, a broomball tournament, artistic competition in ice sculpting, chuckwagon races, and snowmobile races together; top with an ice carnival and the result is the Evansburg Winter Ice Carnival.

Sponsored by the Kinsmen, the carnival took over Evansburg February 25, 26, and 27 for its third year.

A teen dance started the weekend off Friday night, with ladies hockey and a broomball tournament Saturday afternoon. Chuckwagon races followed, on main street, with the ice sculptures being judged later. The winners of the sculpture contest were the Evansview Elementary teachers with their replica of the familiar bookworm.

Snowmobile races Sunday morning had only about 25 competitors. Winner of the junior event (age 14-16) was Chuck Beach, with Brian Gregevond taking a second. Powder Puff winner was Sybill Rimmer with second going to Wendy Gregor.

First in the novelty class was won by Art Tweedle, with second won by Garry Rimmer, while the second novelty race also went to Garry Rimmer.

First in the 300 cc was won by Wilf Jendrick, with second to E. Pitruniak. 340 cc went to Wilf Jendrick and Ted Rimmer. 440 cc went to Gary Lindhal and Garry Rimmer. 640 cc was won by Gary Lindall and E. Flieder.

The Kin Kapades Ice Carnival, featuring the Pembina Piroettes Figure Skating Club, got underway Sunday afternoon before a near-capacity crowd in the Evansburg Ice Arena.

Master of Ceremonies, Nigel Aspeslet, introduced Mayor Guy Dompnier who welcomed everyone, and President of the Kinsmen Bob Bowie who felt that it was rewarding to see such a good crowd on such a cold day.

A flag display with Gail Soliski, Lynn Brown, and Lorraine Coulombe dressed as British bobbies, started the crowd on their tour of the world.

Canada, of course was their first stop on the tour, with Cowboys and Indians fighting it out, followed by a stop at Alaska to visit a passle of Eskimos.

Kangaroos, aborigines and an English hunter showed Australia as the crowd cruised over the island; then a stop at the land of the tulips and wooden shoes.

A duet by Gail Soliski and Lynn Brown depicted Japan, then Lorraine Coulombe showed her version of Austria.

Next stop was France, followed by the isle of the green; off to Russia to see the famed cossack dancers, and finally to the United States.

Throughout the tour, the spectators were given performances by guest skaters Jane Clark of the Edmonton Gateway Club, Dawn O'Neil of the Centennial

1972 Provincial Junior Dance Silver Medalists Barry Fraser and Jane Clark performed three dance routines together. Shauna McGuire and Lorrain Haracyn performed a free-style as a pair.

A surprise performance by world-reknowned skaters of the Evansburg Kinsmen Club showed outstanding comical talent!

Grande finale brought all skaters onto the ice to the music of "Canada", a fitting end to a world tour.

Funeral Services for Former Evansburg Man

About twenty people motored to Edmonton to attend the funeral of Otto Wolff Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolff came to Evansburg in 1940 and at that time it was almost a ghost town. The mine had shut down in 1936 and most of the people had moved away to find work elsewhere. The mine houses were being sold for $50.00 each. Otto noticed all the cream cans on the C.N. platform indicating how much cream was being shipped to Edmonton and this gave him the incentive to build a creamery here. Having worked at the Burns plant, also the Coronation creamery, Otto had the experience needed to grade cream, make butter, candle eggs and thus starting a thriving business. Farmers received money and in turn spent it in the town bringing Evansburg back to life.

In 1955 Otto sold his business to Mr. H. Smith and it was known as Valley Daries then. He then bought a general store from Mr. Charlie MacPhee. Mr. and Mrs. Wolff operated the general store until their retirement in 1970 when he sold the business to Mr. R. Marcotte of Sanguo and moved to Edmonton.

Otto was very musical and played the drums all the years he lived in Evansburg, twenty of those years with the Lorenz Band. He was also active in the community, he was on the board of directors that built the first curling rink and was an ardent curler. Otto was also active in the Chamber of Commerce.

He will be greatly missed by those who knew him and sympathy is extended to Mrs. Wolff and family.

Reno News

Belated birthday greetings to Mrs. Evelyn Angerman for February 12th.

Helen and Mike Borys motored to Red Deer February 19th for the 50th wedding anniversary of Mike's uncle and aunt. They stopped in Edmonton and visited with friends and relatives before returning home Sunday evening.

Randy and Ruby Melville have been staying with the Kaminskis for a few days. A week ago their dad, Ernie, granddad, Bert, and grandmother, Annie Melville were involved in an accident near the Esso Service Station. Ernie suffered cuts to the head and a severe whiplash injury; Bert is in an Edmonton hospital with a broken pelvis, and Annie was fortunate to sustain only a bruised knee as she was sitting in the middle when a large truck ripped the entire driver's side off Mr. Bert Melville's car. The children's mother, Mrs. Kay Melville was admitted to the hospital March 1st and has undergone surgery.

Wayne Yasinchuk is batching while granddad, John Tudge, Joe Tudge and Bernie Bush have gone to Valemont to bring Mrs. Tudge home again, after a lengthy visit with her daughter Rose Stone and family.

The Children's Day of Prayer Service held last Friday, March 3rd at the Calvary Baptist Church was attended by 175 children.

The program consisted of spirited singing, many musical special numbers and skits presented by the children of the various churches in the town.

The importance of prayer in the individual's life was emphasized by a puppet story, "Mr. Rat and His Operation."

The offering received will be used to provide Bibles to underprivileged children through the Canadian Bible Society.

Lindale News

Mrs. Dan Bezludny returned home from Vancouver on Saturday, February 26th. She tells us there is snow in Vancouver, and in the mountains, which makes travelling hazardous. On her visit to B. C. Mrs. Bezludny was accompanied by her sister and niece.

The Devon basketball teams came to Lindale School on Tuesday evening, February 27th. Lindale girls won their game, but the boys were defeated. Better luck next time fellows.

It's nice to welcome Mr. Richard Payne home again, from an Edmonton Hospital.

Once again winter has the entire community in his icy grasp, with below normal temperatures, and much more snow.

Belated congratulations go out to Jimmy Olson and his bride, who were married recently, in Drayton Valley.
